Friends and Family

Should you wish to celebrate with friends and family beyond the wedding ceremony, the team at Raffles Praslin can arrange a host of special experiences. Whether it's afternoon tea the day before the wedding, a family barbecue on the beach or a group cruise on a luxury boat, there are plenty of ways to mark the occasion with your loved ones. Kindly contact our team for more details.

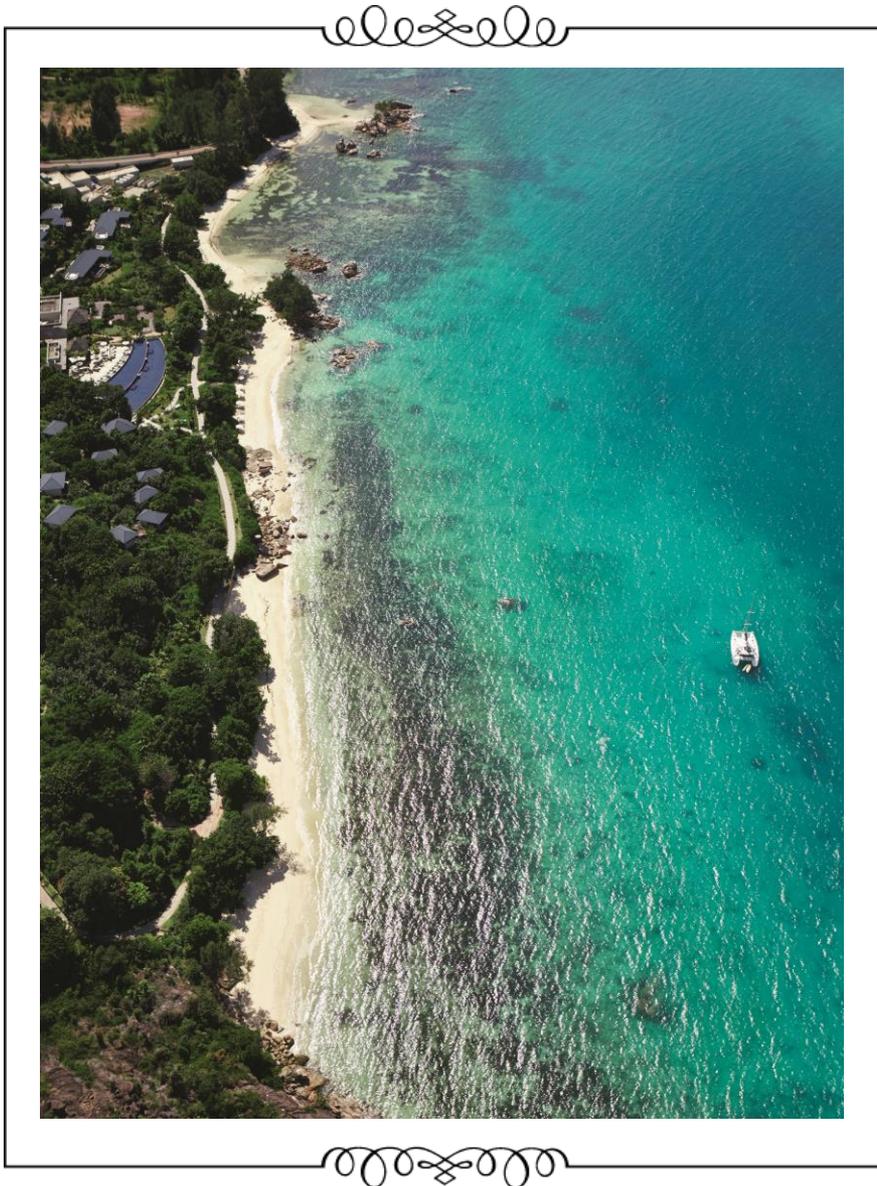

Tree of Love

To commemorate your special day, all weddings at Raffles Praslin are followed by a “tree of love” celebration, where you and your partner can plant a tree in the resort’s gardens to symbolise your growing relationship.

Personalized with your names, you will receive a picture of the tree growing at the birthplace of your union every year on your wedding anniversary.

The Details

Raffles Spa

A haven of peace and rejuvenation ideal for pre- and post-wedding relaxation, the luxurious Raffles Spa features 13 Treatment Pavilions, each showcasing the spectacular view of the blue ocean. Two spa suites, ideal for honeymooners and couples, are fitted with steam showers, Japanese soaking tubs, and observation decks where guests can enjoy stunning vistas in privacy.

Couples treatments include:

- Couple's Bliss Side-by-side indulgence with a 60 minute relaxing massage using aromatic oil, combined with a 30 minute mini facial
- Treasure Time A Raffles Praslin Signature Massage, which uses a blend of essential oils and purpose-designed movements to promote deep relaxation and restore the flow of energy throughout the body.

Registration

For French Citizens

Couples are required to make attestations at the French Embassy before their marriage. A copy of each party's Identification Card, an official family record book, and a passport photograph each for registration purposes at the Embassy in Victoria. If either party is not of French nationality, a notarized copy of all relevant documents translated in French should be submitted. Note: All documents should be forwarded to the French Embassy 2 months prior to the wedding date as publication of forthcoming weddings must be done in France.

For Swiss Citizens

A copy of their Certificate of Domicile is required, as well as a legal document to show there is no impediment or lawful hindrance; if not obtainable, an affidavit is to be signed in the presence of the Honorary Swiss Consul in the Seychelles, after the solemn declaration of domicile, as part of the marriage registration process. Note: Fax copies are not accepted. An extra 18 Euros applies for the Swiss Consulate to process the wedding documents.

For Italian Citizens

A copy of the couple's Town Registration in Italy.

All documents must be either in the English or French Language. In the case of other nationalities, a notarized translation must be presented with the original copies.

Registration

The following documents are required 2 weeks prior to the wedding date (except for French documents, which are required 3 months prior to the date):

- A copy of both party's birth certificates (translated into English)
- A copy of the previous marriage certificate and Decree Absolute, if one or both parties have been divorced
- A copy of previous marriage certificate and death certificate, if one or both parties are widowed
- A copy of deed poll if one or both parties have changed their name legally
- A copy of the first or last 6 pages of each passport, including the inside covers, showing the party's personal details

Please note:

- The couple will have to travel with original documents
- A license fee will be liable for weddings held during the weekend or on public holidays
- The wedding should be scheduled at least 3 days after the check-in date and 3 days prior to the check-out date

What our couples are saying...

“

Thank you so much for organising our wedding. It was a beautiful day and we loved every minute of it. Your attention to every detail was brilliant and we couldn't have asked for a more lovely wedding.

Sarah & Philip, June 2015

Our wedding day was the real wow we had hoped it would be. It was a stunning location and well managed by you.

Ceris & Jamie, May 2015

We cannot thank you enough for making our special day the most memorable day every. Your team have been so kind and very, very helpful – our expectations have been more than exceeded. We will never forget these days at Raffles Praslin and we'll surely come back.

Eva & Philip, February 2015

We had a simply fabulous time at Raffles, and we could not have asked for a better location, hotel or staff for our special day. Everything was fantastic.

Toktam & Niall, December 2014
